

Overview of Deforestation

This map provides an overview of the countries that supply Switzerland with coffee and shows the coffee-growing countries' risk of deforestation. This overview helps people become more aware of their coffees' origin and encourages more responsible buying behaviour, hence sustainable coffee consumption. Furthermore, it creates awareness about the impact of deforestation in the different coffee-growing countries.

